Those who have made the distinguished visitor's acquaintance have found him a most delightful character. He is preminently handsome; tall, of athletic build, clear-cut, mobile features, expressive dark-brown eyes, and a firm chin. His boyish manner is particularly attractive. Although fond of outdoor sports and the usual enjoyments of Parisian life, the Duc de Chaulnes is cultured in art and literature, and also well versed in the medical sciences.

The guests of the dinner which Miss Foraker gave in honor of Miss Margaret Plerson, who is visiting Miss Ffoulke were: Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel Francis, staying the next two weeks. Her plans beyond that are not arranged except that she will make a visit to her husband's relatives in Ohio.
